FREE BOOK COMPANION

Faith Secrets

Trust that takes a next step

Read. Reflect. Respond.

Original Bible study questions to use alongside the book. These worksheets are not excerpts from the book and do not require a purchase.

Reading passages
Romans 10:14-17; Hebrews 11:1-6; James 1:22-25

01 / Hear the Word
Read Romans 10:14-17. What is the message people are called to hear? How does the surrounding passage connect hearing, believing, and calling on the Lord?

02 / Respond in trust
Read Hebrews 11:1-6. What do Abel, Enoch, and the opening definition teach about approaching God? Write a question you want to study more carefully.

03 / Put it into practice
Read James 1:22-25. Name one instruction in a passage you have read and one specific action that would express obedience this week.

Explore Faith Secrets and available editions

Join the Saturday Bible study

PERSONAL OR SMALL-GROUP USE

My response this week

Faith Secrets

What does the passage say in context?

What question should I discuss with a trusted believer?

What practical step will I take, and when?

Who can I pray for or support this week?

For a group: Read the passage aloud, invite everyone to observe the text, discuss one question, and close with prayer. Check interpretations against the whole passage.

FREE BOOK COMPANION

Spiritual Warfare

Stand firm in Christ

Read. Reflect. Respond.

Original Bible study questions to use alongside the book. These worksheets are not excerpts from the book and do not require a purchase.

Reading passages
Ephesians 6:10-18; Ephesians 4:25-32; 2 Corinthians 10:3-5

01 / Read the whole picture
Read Ephesians 6:10-18. Where does strength come from? List the armor pieces and notice the repeated call to stand.

02 / Choose a daily response
Read Ephesians 4:25-32 alongside the armor passage. Which concrete habits of truthfulness, forgiveness, and speech support standing firm?

03 / Bring thoughts to Christ
Read 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 in context. Identify one claim or thought to examine in the light of Christ and Scripture. Discuss your understanding with a trusted believer.

Explore Spiritual Warfare and available editions

Join the Saturday Bible study

PERSONAL OR SMALL-GROUP USE

My response this week

Spiritual Warfare

What does the passage say in context?

What question should I discuss with a trusted believer?

What practical step will I take, and when?

Who can I pray for or support this week?

For a group: Read the passage aloud, invite everyone to observe the text, discuss one question, and close with prayer. Check interpretations against the whole passage.

FREE BOOK COMPANION

Be Healed Now

Pray with faith and compassion

Read. Reflect. Respond.

Original Bible study questions to use alongside the book. These worksheets are not excerpts from the book and do not require a purchase.

Reading passages
Matthew 8:14-17; Mark 10:46-52; James 5:13-18

01 / Notice Jesus
Read Matthew 8:14-17. What does Jesus do for Peter's household and the people brought to Him? What does Matthew emphasize about His ministry?

02 / Listen to the request
Read Mark 10:46-52. What does Bartimaeus ask? What does Jesus say? Describe the encounter before drawing a personal application.

03 / Pray together
Read James 5:13-18. Notice prayer, elders, oil in the Lord's name, confession, and mutual care. Plan a time to pray with trusted church leaders and a practical act of support.

Explore Be Healed Now and available editions

Join the Saturday Bible study

PERSONAL OR SMALL-GROUP USE

My response this week

Be Healed Now

What does the passage say in context?

What question should I discuss with a trusted believer?

What practical step will I take, and when?

Who can I pray for or support this week?

For a group: Read the passage aloud, invite everyone to observe the text, discuss one question, and close with prayer. Check interpretations against the whole passage.

Prayer and compassionate practical care can go together. Do not use a worksheet to change medical treatment; discuss care decisions with a qualified clinician.